

PLAN TO ATTEND!

THE RETAIN CENTER OF EXCELLENCE AT NEWBERRY COLLEGE AND THE FRANCIS MARION UNIVERSITY
CENTER OF EXCELLENCE TO PREPARE TEACHERS OF CHILDREN OF POVERTY

SPRING 2011 WORKSHOP IMPORTANT WORK: TEACHING CHILDREN OF POVERTY

*Do you want to help children who live in poverty succeed in school and in life?
Do you sometimes struggle to make every minute of the school day count?
Then this is a Saturday morning of professional learning you will not want to miss!*

DOOR PRIZES! DOOR PRIZES! DOOR PRIZES!

Participants will develop a practical, step-by-step plan that can be put into practice immediately. Learn about research-based classroom strategies and best practices that are aligned with these Star Strategies for Teachers of Children of Poverty:

- ★ Develop quality meaningful relationships with children.
- ★ Provide health-related support services.
- ★ Cultivate family and community partnerships.
- ★ Align classroom instruction and assessment with required, tested standards.
- ★ Motivate the unmotivated.
- ★ Build academic background knowledge.
- ★ Design and deliver purposeful instruction.
- ★ Benefit from strong and supportive school leaders.

WHEN: April 30, 2011 9:00 – 12:00

WHERE: FIREHOUSE CONFERENCE CENTER, NEWBERRY, SC

For Directions: <http://www.newberryfirehouse.com/resources/directions>

RSVP: CFREDERICKSON@NEWBERRY.EDU

COST: Free! Free! Free!

HELP FEED THOSE IN NEED!!

Bring a canned good to the workshop and help stock the shelves of the Manna House Food Bank!!