

Standards of Conduct for South Carolina Educators

TEXT HUNT

Directions: Use the SCDE brochure to answer the following questions. The Standards of Conduct for South Carolina Educators can be found at <http://www.scteachers.org/Cert/certpdf/standardssofconduct.pdf>.

Item	Your Answer
1. List 10 behaviors over which the State Board of Education can legally revoke or suspend your teaching license.
2. At what point can you lose your teaching license if you fail the school's job evaluation process?
3. What is a five-word definition for moral turpitude ?
4. List the 5 legal disciplinary actions the State Board of Education may impose on your teaching certificate.
5. List the four steps followed in the due process of taking disciplinary action on an educator certificate.
6. List 5 behaviors for which South Carolina educators have had disciplinary action taken on their certificates.
7. What can cause you to have your application for certification denied?
8. If your teaching certificate is denied, suspended, or revoked, who will the State Board of Education notify?	